

Supporting Organizations

The University City Commission on Human Relations (U-City CHR) has compiled the following list of organizations to provide individuals or groups with concerns related to discrimination the means of contacting the organizations that will listen to their concerns, advise them of their rights and responsibilities, and investigate formal complaints of discrimination.

Metropolitan St. Louis Equal Housing Opportunity Council (EHOC)

The Metropolitan St. Louis Equal Housing Opportunity Council seeks to ensure equal access to housing for all people through education, counseling, investigation, and enforcement. EHOC is the only private, not-for-profit fair housing enforcement agency working to end illegal housing discrimination in the Metropolitan St. Louis area.

Department of Justice Community Relations Service (CRS); regional office; Kansas City, MO

The mission of the Department of Justice's Community Relations Service is to provide violence prevention and conflict resolution services for community conflicts and tensions arising from differences of race, color, or national origin. CRS is the only federal service mandated to help state and local government agencies, public and private organizations, and community groups resolve and prevent community racial conflicts through the use of mediation, conciliation, and other conflict resolution approaches. CRS also works with law enforcement, local and federal government officials, and community leaders to more effectively prevent and respond to violent hate crimes committed on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, or disability.

The St. Louis Metropolitan area is served by the Central Regional Office, Region VII, of the Community Relations Service, located in Kansas City.

U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), St. Louis District Office

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission enforces federal laws prohibiting employment discrimination. These laws protect against employment discrimination when it involves:

- Unfair treatment because of your race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability, or genetic information
- Harassment by managers, co-workers, or others in your workplace, because of the reasons above
- Denial of a reasonable workplace accommodation that you need because of your religious beliefs or disability
- Retaliation because you complained about job discrimination, or assisted with a job discrimination investigation or lawsuit.
