Honorable Terry Crow,
Members of the City Council,
and University City Residents:

Administration

Flood Information

FEMA and SEMA have opened a Disaster Recovery Center in Centennial Commons in University City. The center will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Sunday. If you need assistance recovering from the flood, please visit the center. Additionally, information and resources provided by FEMA and SEMA can be found on the City's website at:

<http://www.icitymo.org/920/Flood-Information>

Unemployment Benefits Available to Flood Victims

Bulk Pickup associated with the recent flood is scheduled to be completed on Friday, September 2, with regularly scheduled bulk pickup to begin on the week of September 12 for the East Area, the week of September 19 for the Central Area, and the week of September 26 for the West Area.

Public Works and Parks, Recreation and Forestry

Street sweeping has been delayed in many areas of the City due to the loss of a street sweeper to flood waters. We anticipate getting back to our regular schedule on September 12, 2022.

Regular trash collections will be on the holiday schedule for the week of September 5 as Monday, September 5 is the Labor Day Holiday.

Stormwater Commission is scheduled to meet on Tuesday, September 6.

Arts & Letters Commission is scheduled to meet on Thursday, September 8.

Fire

On August 20, the Professional Firefighters of University City Community Outreach Group and Faded Hair Salon combined efforts to offer free back to school haircuts at the University City Firehouse #1. Despite recent flooding, turnout was good. The University City Firefighters and Faded plan on making this an annual event. (see Attachment 1)

Police

Special thanks to CM Rose and the UCPD Chaplains Rev. Carol Jackson, Rev. Alverta Moody Smith and Rabbi Novak for continuous community service and support for our National Night out event.
