ADMINISTRATION

This year marks another milestone in the history of University City as we celebrate 100 years of our Park System. "University City's first parks opened in 1923, so let's celebrate! Watch for activities throughout 2023 highlighting the past, present, and future of the amazing parks our entire community enjoy," said Mayor Terry Crow. On January 9, 2023, the Mayor and Council passed the attached Proclamation that recognizes 100 years of the parks and urges residents to visit our parks. (see Attachment 1)

POLICE

The University City Police Department collaborated with the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) in making the Third Annual "Beyond the Badge" event a success at University City High School.

This event involves in-depth discussions and real-life scenarios with teens in our community. (see Attachment 2)
