UCPD Update

University City Police Department Joins All-Nations Church Chili Cook-Off

This past Saturday, November 9th, members of the University City Police Department joined in the festivities at the All-Nations Church Chili Cook-Off, where they assisted with judging and even showcased their own culinary skills. The event brought together community members, local chefs, and officers for a friendly competition filled with delicious chili and lively conversation. By participating in events like this, our officers continue to strengthen community bonds and foster a spirit of collaboration and goodwill throughout University City. Thank you to All-Nations Church for hosting this wonderful event!
