Shaw Nature Reserve Director to Speak at UCPL July 7

Join us at 6:30 p.m. Monday, July 7 for a talk with Quinn Long, Director of Shaw Nature Reserve. Long's talk, titled "Celebrating a Century of Conservation: Shaw Nature Reserve; Past, Present, & Future," centers on the history of how the Missouri Botanical Garden acquired this rural land to provide a refuge for plant collections threatened by air pollution — and how it has become a regional leader for ecological restoration, native plant horticulture, and environmental education.

The Shaw Nature Reserve contributes to a unique visitor experience and fulfills the mission of the Garden towards global plant conservation efforts. Join us as we celebrate the past and look toward a bright future of protecting our regional biodiversity.

University City Police Department Connects with Future Leaders at UMSL's Bridge Program Career Fair

On July 2nd, members of the University City Police Department participated in the University of Missouri–St. Louis (UMSL) Bridge Program Career Fair. Officers engaged with students to share insights about careers in law enforcement, discuss public safety initiatives, and highlight the department's commitment to community partnerships.

The event provided an opportunity to inspire and inform the next generation of professionals while strengthening connections between University City and local youth.

Spotlight: Officer Galen Phillips Sworn In

This past week, the University City Police Department welcomed one of its newest officers, Galen Phillips, in a moving graduation and swearing-in ceremony at City Hall. Family, friends, and department leadership gathered to celebrate this milestone as Officer Phillips formally took his oath of office, pledging to protect and serve the community.

Chief Larry Hampton led the proceedings, highlighting Phillips's dedication, perseverance through rigorous training, and strong commitment to community policing. In attendance were Commander Fredrick Lemons and other key members of the department, who emphasized the importance of ethics, continuous learning, and building trust with residents.

During the ceremony, Officer Phillips received his badge and commission card—symbols of his new role and responsibilities. The event concluded with a heartfelt reception, giving guests the chance to congratulate him personally and share their encouragement.

Officer Phillips's induction marks a promising addition to University City's team of 68 sworn officers, reinforcing the department's pledge to community engagement and safety.
